Reception.

Mrs. R. H. Ragland gave a reception Wednesday afternoon, at which she introduced her sister, Mrs. John C. Taylor, of Lexington, who arrived Tuesday for a visit. It was an informal affair, but proved to be a most pleasant occasion. With her gracious, pleasing manner Mrs. Ragland could not be other than a most agreeable hostess, and the guests found Mrs.
Taylor to be equally charming. The reception was from three to five o'clock. Dainty refreshments were

Your Eyes.

Many people are suffering from defective eyes and do not realize what the trouble is. That almost constant headache is due to eye-strain and can only be cured by glasses properly fitted. Hundreds of people continue to squint and strain their eyes in reading long after they should have used glasses. This is doing permanent injury to the eyes and should be stopped. Those who have never used properly fitted glasses can not realize the great relief afforded until they try a good pair. Go to Conley's Store and have an examination made by Mr. E. E. Henry, who is a graduate optician of long experience, and as competent as is found anywhere. Examination free.

Good Position.

Henry G. Snyder, of Lexington, was here Wednesday evening on his return from Philadelphia. He has recently been appointed an attorney for the Southern Mutual Investment Company, a large and successful institution of Lexington. The position is a desirable one.

A. Smith Bowman, secretary and general manager of the Southern Mutual Investment Company, when asked by the Leader about the matter said:
"Yes, it is a fact that we have established a distinct legal department with Mr. Snyder an attorney. The growth of the company during the past year, coupled with the fact that it does business in thirty States, besides Canada, Mexico and Cuba, and is subject to the legal requirements and regulations of all these States, with many intricate and detailed questions to handle, has made the establishment of a legal department an administrative necessity. The firm of Brockbridge & Shelby will of course, remain the advisory counsel of the company, and Mr. Snyder will handle the inside work. We think the training Mr. Snyder has had and the fact that he has made a special study of insurance law, the principles of which are very similar to those governing the operations of legitimate investment companies, particularly fit him for undertaking the important legal work to which he has been assigned."

Deer For Sale.

We have two young deer for sale for the reason that we will have no place to keep them when we go into business in West Virginia. They are of the large black tail family and are as gentle as dogs. They were caught in the State of Washington by M. H. Thompson and a companion. They are fine pets and will return to a reasonable price if disposed of within ten days. They are on the Wiley Harriott farm five miles from Louisa.

GRAYSON.
The Grayson Tribune says:
Dr. Morton Watson, a chief promoter in the big Olive Hill fire clay deal, was in town Friday.
R. L. Neff, of Lexington, was here Tuesday enroute to Blaine in the interest of the New Domestic Oil and Gas Company. He will surrender a big lot of leases while here.
Z. Taylor Young has resigned as County Attorney of Rowan and the County Judge has appointed Attorney J. W. Riley. Mr. Young will locate at Pikeville to practice law.

An oil company in which Attorneys Willholt and Salmon, of Ashland, are interested, made a big strike in Wolfe county, bringing in a fifty barrel well.
Nicholas Fischer, a former citizen of this place and prominent in lumber circles, died Saturday at his home in Vermillion, Ohio. Mr. Henry Fisher, the Webbsville capitalist, a son of the deceased, received the sad intelligence by wire and left by first train for Vermillion. The deceased had many warm friends here who regret to hear of his demise.
